JOANNE CARTER

COVER PAGE

Too much of the bad and little of good is publicized each day about our Teenagers, leaving the reader thinking--"What is the World Coming to?"

In answer to that query, we are pleased to present our COVERGIRL, Joanne Carter of East Orange, bright and promising teenager, with stars in her eyes, yes! But with her feet on the ground, a purpose in mind, who has hitched her wagon to a star, as student of political science at the Douglass College for Women, in New Brunswick, N. J.

Since this is the political season POLITICIANS BEWARE, because she by accurate measurement has a platform of 38", 25" and 38". Is there a candidate in town who could use advice on the scientific method?

TESTIMONIAL DINNER

Madaline A. Williams

First Negro Assembly woman in New Jersey history, representing the Essex County constituents, comes into her own well deserved recognition March 27th when she will be honored in a Testimonial dinner at Suburban Hotel, East Orange, 6:30 P. M. by the Oranges-Maplewood NAACP Branch.

Her history of diligent service to NAACP is legend, 12 years as Youth Advisor, Executive committee member, State Conference Youth Advisor.

Perhaps no woman in the area has given so unstintedly of her time promoting the well-being of young people community and statewide.

EMILY MILES

THE BIG SHOW — The Emily Miles of Newark, N. J. millinery production "Above All The Right Hat," which commenced some five years ago, more as a venture to test whether or not she was ready to take her creations (hats) downtown to the places entailing large overhead in expenses, recently justified her ambition with a SRO audience.

It might be easily reckoned that the Miles "Spring Millinery and Fashion Festival" is one of the fashion extravaganzas which has a following of a mixed and sundry group, ranging from socialites, church members, civic and fraternal groups, and at this recent show a generous sprinkling of tiny tots comprised the audience.

The Miles Spring Millinery Revue this year had for its theme "Designing Woman," which the fashion creators probably took literally and in the presentation of the fabulous garments were it not for the individuality of the Miles chapeaux which are so exquisitely designed as to immediately attract the eye, the "Designing Women" might have overshadowed the keypoint of the Big Show—the Millinery.

Named To Membership

Miss Sylvia West:

ELECTED TO HONOR SOCIETY — The former Sylvia West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. West, East Orange, and the much hailed Howard University Gridiron Queen of 1956 (See Club World '57 late winter issue), takes on new laurels. Now a Howard University graduate student in psychology, she was recently elected to the National Honorary Society of Psychologists. She also, last June 1957, became the bride of Howard University medical student, Lewis W. Marshall.

NEW JERSEY STATE ASSOCIATION INC.

AND AUXILIARY OF I. B. P. O. E. OF W.

ANNUAL STATE CHARITY BALL — The New Jersey Elks, I.B.P.O.E. of W. Annual Ball held at Terrace Room, Newark, came at a most welcome time to ease the tension and to set things right among the Brothers and Daughters. Men and women in Elkdom were on the scene, and there is nothing like a great big convivial session, such as the recent Ball, to clear away the mist and set a rainbow in the sky. State President Whitaker, and State Auxiliary President Schenck together with other State officials were confident that Elkdom will reign long to carry on its charities among all the people.

RICHER, FULLER LIVES

Prominent Club Women

GLADYCE KENT, East Orange, actively engaged in a number of prominent clubs, Les Nouvelle Femmes, The Toppers, and with husband Joseph, plays an important role in the smart Husbands and Wives, Inc. Her husband, a former U. S. postal employee, who resigned to become one of the leading insurance salesmen with N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Company.

CARRYE FIELDS, Montclair, school teacher and mother of one son, is fashionable president of North Jersey Toppers, Inc., and an accomplished designer. Turning the heads of the crowd is an easy feat with Mrs. Fields, when she appears at any of the numerous civic and social functions in her own smartly created outfits. At the moment the Toppers are toying with the idea of another brilliant card party.

DOROTHY B. MASSEY, Newark, charter member North Jersey Toppers, Inc., member of Q'ettes and Newark Unit Women's Auxiliary, North Jersey Medical Society. Her husband is noted physician Dr. J. Bruce Massey, recent inventor of five surgical instruments for controlled contraception, listed in "Who's Important in Medicine" since 1944 and in "International Blue Book of World Notables" since 1948.

Business & Professional Women

FORMAL BALL OF THE ROSES, NORTH JERSEY UNIT NATIONAL BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN, at Terrace Ballroom, Newark, found National President Marie Harrison, also member of the local unit, crowning Mary Pitts Jones, the "Queen." Mrs. Jones holds one dozen American Beauty roses, a gift from the club, and is flanked by her ladies-in-waiting the Ball chairman Mrs. Edith Wright (lft) and Mary

Gallant Warrior

ROY CAMPANELLA

A greatness far beyond superlative ability in one's specialized field is not given to many. A great love for his fellowmen, complete lack of selfishness, great modesty, magnificent affability, are traits endearing Roy to sportsmen everywhere.

We are reminded of a similar reverence held for the great Lou Gehrig. Our prayers are with the doughty Dodger catcher and his family--we sincerely pray baseball has not lost one of its most beloved players.

PUBLIC SERVANTS

A. J. CLEMENTS, JR.

DR FRANT T. WILSON

Education secretary(rt) of Presbyterian Board Ecumenical Mission recently returned to Orange from an extended trip to Lebanon in The Near East. He was welcomed by his sister, Mrs Ophelia Calloway of Webster Pl. and other relatives. He was the guest speaker at International Day of the Arlington Ave. Presbyterian Church.

SPOTLIGHT ON AFRICA

World conditions are in a state of turbulent flux. Indicative of inevitable change is the movement of the 33,000,000 people of Nigeria for self-government. Pictured are some of the leaders upon whose shoulders will fall the responsibilities for setting up the machinery for independence.

AWOLOWO.

OKOTIE-EBOH.

With the emergence of sovereign states on the African continent, the United States is re-evaluating its foreign and economic policies. Libya, Tunisia, Morocco, Sudan and Ghana have gained their mandates, to be followed by Nigeria.

A new Assistant Secretary of State for Africa is likely to be appointed and many new consulates have already been set up in Africa. After centuries of political obscurity Africa is entering world affairs as an active party. The importance of these nations joining the free political and economic institutions of the western democracies cannot be minimized. Should they be wooed and won by the Soviet bloc, a widening wedge would be driven into the political and economic structures of the free world, plus the loss of perhaps the most strategic military position in the world.

DIAMOND BALL

Modern Beauticians Investment Corp., vie with others for public attention in its "DIAMOND BALL" on Easter Sunday, April 6th at Terrace ballroom, with "teenagers hop" added attraction.

A call is now being issued to all young women interested to participate in modelling classes to be held each Monday at Modern Twin Shoppe and each Tuesday at LaVogue, leading up to the time of the Ball, which will find one of these young women out of the 100 being called, as The Regional Diamond Queen. She will later participate in the National Diamond Ball, in the capitol city at Washington D. C. May 24th.

The Newark Modern Beauticians together with groups throughout the country are staging individual Balls as preliminaries to the National.

OUR PUBLIC SERVANTS

WALTER CHAMBERS (Top—lft), Assistant to Director of Newark Mayor's Commission on Group Relations. Lincoln University grad, student at N.Y.U. Graduate School on Human Relations, member of the Frontiers and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. Together with Commission members, he promoted an excellent Annual Brotherhood Forum, February 26th, at which time Mayor Leo P. Carlin was honored.

Highlighting the affair was guest speaker Algernon D. Black, leader of the Society for Ethical Culture in New York and chairman of National Committee Against Discrimination.

HENRY W. SMITHERS, (Top—rt), Verona, N. J., recently appointed Station Superintendent, Verona Post Office, which marks the first time in the history of Montclair postal system a Negro has obtained that rank.

He comes to the position well prepared because of his excellent leadership qualities. A member of one of North Jersey's old line families, he is married and father of two sons. He is invariably on the scene at most of the important civic and social community affairs accompanied by his pretty wife, Fannie, sister to Mrs. Eugene Simms of Summit.

THE STORY BEHIND THE STORY

RUTH GARRETT (Bottom—lft), member of Newark Unit National Business & Professional Women, Inc., and its 1957 "Queen." Energetic member of St. Philip's Episcopal Church.

In close cooperation with her husband she has worked in his former restaurant business, and in the present popular bistro, known as "Woody's Corner" as a silent partner she has aided tremendously in making it a show place and popular gathering spot for North Jersey's fashionable set seeking a night out on the town.

THOMAS MULDROW (rt), husband of one of North Jersey's most exotic and glamorous beauticians, Mae T. Muldrow of LaVogue Beauty Shoppe, Newark. He capably conducts the business of the enterprise, takes on the role of "man behind the scene" in a modest and unassuming manner. Gracefully retires from the spotlight, letting the acclaim which constantly falls on wife Mae, cast only its reflecting beams on him.

THE PLATONS

THE PLATONS, INC., set the pace and a precedent for other social-civic clubs in the North Jersey area some few years ago, when in conjunction with the famed Tweedsmen they contributed $1,500.00 to the Community Hospital, which at that time served the community. Again they take up the challenge for service and recently contributed $1,000.00 to the Boys' Club Morton Street unit building fund.

THE MODERN PIONEERS, one of the younger groups in years of organization exemplify the community spirit of service by their contribution to the Morton Street Boys' Club Building Fund in a pledge of a sizeable amount. To assure the pledge they anticipate an overwhelming attendance at their Pre-Easter Dance, April 5th at the Terrace Ballroom.

Leadership in Action

CAROLINE BENTON (Top row—1st), emely president of Sweethearts Social Club, Inc. The club, approximately two years old is fast making itself felt in the community. Attesting to their popularity was the overflow crowd joining them in their Annual Dance recently at Irvington House. The crowd was gay, the feminine guests glamorous, the male guests simply elegant and the music simply heavenly.

GRACE PAYTON (Top row—2nd), President Women's Auxiliary Newark Branch National Alliance Postal Employees, who are in the process of plans for Annual May "Coffee Hour." Aside from her capabilities as Auxiliary prexy, she directs the Day Nursery activities at Friendly Neighborhood House, Newark, working with care, gentleness and love with the "small fry." Mrs. Gladys E. Churchman, her Executive Director.

HAROLD D. WOOD (Bottom row—1st) capable president of the Pace Setters, who have set a precedent in the Newark area for novel and captivating affairs. Prexy Wood is shown in his "gay nineties" attire at the club's recent mid-winter Carnival, which drew a capacity crowd. The boys have a yen for making a better community in which to live, and to that end keep close tabs on what the politicians are doing in and around the community.

JACK COLEMAN (Bottom row—2nd), personable Exalted Ruler Lt. John Perrin Lodge #1425, I.B.P.O.E. of W., finds directing his group an easy task, since it is composed of young men with keen vision and progressive ideas. Exalted Ruler Coleman, a firm believer in supporting other clubs and organizations, as he has proven over the years, with constant appearance at the numerous worthwhile community events.

Concert Artist - AUDREY LINK

An outstanding concert singer, soloist with the Jersey City Choral Society and member of National Association of Negro Musicians. She is a student of the famous Sara Lee of New York City, and has been presented in concerts and recitals in New Jersey, New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. Her most recent appearance was at History week celebration in February sponsored by Essex County Chapter, of National Junior League, Inc., in Montclair.

Mrs Link also teaches voice, and at a recent meeting of the Jersey City Chapter of National Assn. of Negro Musicians, held at her home, a student, Miss Angelica Colasurdo was featured. In connection with National Assn. of Negro Musicians, Mrs Link extends an invitation through the organizer, Ruby H. Brent of New York, to all music students, organists, voice and musical instruments teachers, to join. The famed Eastern Choral Group early this year became a member.

Met Opera Star

GLORIA DAVY fourth star of color to be presented at the Metropolitan Opera, received the ovations and plaudits of an enthused SRO audience, as she sang recently the slave girl role in "Aida".

Miss Ruberta E. Rodgers, was one of the fortunate Newarkers to hear her.

Miss Davy a year ago sang the role in Paris, and returned to the States to sing it again last summer at the Lewisohn Stadium in New York.

Rock And Roll

Tongue in cheek, we read of the music rage--Rock N' Roll sweeping the country, and are not the least disturbed, nor concerned with its effect on our adolescents.

For we've stopped off in the backwoods of the Carolinas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Georgia and other far southern spots, and heard coming from ramshackled country churches on an off beat note, "Amazing Grace How Sweet the Sound", or "Precious Lord Take My Hand", sung by a prancing, whirling congregation in step with the rhythm. Folk trying to break loose from weight of every day cares--and finally on an exalted note, seemingly having shaken their shackles--their souls soaring upward, released at last into an ecstasy of frenzied dancing.

Nothing to be troubled about--just the release of pent up emotions--then after tempest comes such calm.

Now, for you who've not had the privilege of digging authentic Rock N'Roll (as outlined above), get out your Hi-Fi, load it with such LP records as "Valley of Tears"(BMI)-Fats Domino, "Just Hold My Hand"(BMI) Clyde McPhatter, or "I Got A Woman" and "Hallelujah", both national hits featuring the singing as well as piano playing of Ray Charles (Atlantic 8006)---and go

THE CHURCH IN THE NEWS

Progress

Dr Albert L. Manley, Spellman College, Atlanta, Ga. president, was guest speaker at 14th Annual Dinner meeting of the Credit Union of the First Baptist Church, Cranford, N. J., held in February at Newark Essex House. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Benjamin W. P. Allen, on behalf of First Baptist presented a $1,000.00 gift to the United Negro College Fund.

Rev. Dr. Gardner C. Taylor, the pastor of Concord Baptist Church in Brooklyn, N. Y. in February became the first Negro clergyman, and the first Baptist to head the Protestant Council of New York City. Dr Taylor, 39 years old, is also the youngest clergyman to hold this coveted post in the 14 year history of the group which comprises 1700 Protestant churches and 31 denominations in the metropolitan area.

Rev. C. Lincoln McGee, pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church, in Montclair, N. J. was unanimously elected moderator of the Newark Presbytery becoming the first Negro holding that top administrative post. He succeeds Rev Dr Lloyd Ellis Foster pastor of Old First Church, Newark.

Rev. J. Clinton Hoggard, member of the Newark, N. J. illustrious Hoggard clan, returned to the States in early March, after visiting Ghana and Nigeria, West Africa, in his official capacity as secretary-treasurer of AME Zion Church foreign missions.

UNION BAPTIST - ORANGE

Young People's Chorus, Orange, N. J. organized under administration of pastor Rev. J. Vance McIver, celebrated its 19th anniversary in February with meritorious service pins of 15 years to Clara Jones, Isabelle Terrell, Phyllis Thompson; ten year pins Elizabeth Pryor; five year pins Gertrude Banks, Richard Lee, Jeanne Simenson; and two to four year pins Evelyn Bryant, Eleanor Cameron, Marilyn DeFreese, Patricia Farrar, president Helen Gould, Margaret Wyatt, Edward Myers, Gloria Robertson, Leonard Rogers and Jacqueline Scott.

Mrs Olida Bomar, organist, was cited for her 19 years of gratuitous services. Albert A. Tillery, is organist-director. Among the achievements of the chorus are annual rendition of Handel's "Messiah", establishment of a Music Fund by Mrs Bomar to develop the music department; also establishment of a Scholarship Fund in 1950 with $3,650.00 having been raised and $3,185.50 of that sum given to worthy students to further their musical careers.

On April 23rd the chorus invites the public to hear the Teacher's college choir of Winston Salem, N. C., who will be presented in concert at the church.

ST. JAMES AME - NEWARK

Altar Circle, one of the oldest auxiliaries of the church, featured the Orange Majestic Singers in concert at the church recently before capacity audience. Altar Circle president Mrs Laura Green, Vice President Mrs Jessie Madden, Secretary Mrs Florence Brown and treasurer Mr George Reid. Rev E. L. Blake, pastor.

The church choir, Mrs Hattye Coppock, organist-director, will present the immortal Easter Cantata, "Seven Last Words" on Good Friday, April 4th, at the church. The public is invited.

Young Married Women's Guild scored another triumph in its history of novel entertainment with Fifth Annual Te Espanol (Spanish Tea) in beautifully decorated candle-lit lecture room. Special mention to eight year old James Brown, Jr. in violin selection, Bertram Coppock, Jr., cello selection, Millicent Taylor, outstanding piano solo. Also to Miss Mary Henly, Newark, and Mr Edward Spaights, Howard University student in rendition of three Spanish solos. The program maintained the traditional Spanish influence, ably presented by member Marion P. Murrill, garbed in colorful Mexican outfit. Miss Evelyn Coppock assisted at the piano.

In Memoriam

REV NATHANIEL GILMORE, Summit, pastor Pilgrim Baptist Church at age 56. A 32d degree Mason, affiliated with a number of the Houses of the Masonic Order, and member of the Ministers' Conference. Whigham Funeral Home officiated at the burial rites.

DR & MRS LONNIE BUNCHE, Sr., passed away several months ago, with in a few weeks of each other. A faithful dentist for many years in Newark; his devoted wife working closely by his side. Miss Alma Bunche, Mr & Mrs Lonnie Bunche, Jr., and two children reside in the Belleville, N. J. family home, facing life bravely after their grievous loss.

MAMIE MILLER, Jersey City, beloved wife of Daniel Miller, and devoted mother of Herny, Carl, Christopher, David and Samuel Miller, and Eugenia Blount. She was a faithful member of Mt Pisgah Church, Jersey City over twenty-five years.

RUTH ETTA PITTS, Beloved daughter of Emma and Alexander Pitts, Sr. of Jersey City, and dear sister of Alexander Pitts, Jr., devoted aunt of Greg Allen Pitts, sister-in-law of Irma Pitts, after a protracted illness. She was founder of the Lafayette Presbyterian Church library and an arduous worker in Christian education.

MT. ZION BAPTIST

Integration in the Pulpit came to Newark in February, with unanimous vote of the 600 membership of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Broadway, to call Rev Douglas L. Saxby as Associate Minister. Rev Homer S. Tucker said the call to the white clergyman was made to "remove any appearances that identified Mt Zion as second rate in housekeeping quality of service, and that integration itself was a two-way street".

Rev Saxby has not only pastored in other fields, but served as Baptist Missionary in Manila, Phillipine Isle, was Public Relations director of Seattle Pacific College and currently conducts a Ph. D. program at Princeton University, where he resides with his wife and three children.

February 23rd installation ceremony and prayer was delivered by Rev Ralph Drisko, Director of Evangelism Church Extension and Urban Work, N. J. Baptist Convention. Rev J. V. McIver, Union Baptist, Orange, and Rev W. F. Davison, Peddie Memorial First Baptist, Newark also participated.

FIRST BAPTIST - SO. ORANGE

Gospel Chorus held a successful children's Fashion show, with 100 or more children from East Orange, Orange, Maplewood, South Orange, Verona, Montclair, Vaux Hall and Newark participating. Mrs E. Moses, chairman of the affair, Rev Edgar Thomas, pastor. Vocal selections were given by Rev Baskerville, and Mrs Kitty V. Taylor, commentated the show.

CLINTON MEMORIAL AME ZION - NEWARK

Young People's Choir was presented in a recital by the Missionary Society. A large measure of the success of the affair was due to the efforts of Mrs Alene Houston, president, Mrs Winnell Sessions, chairman, and the excellent committee. Among the featured soloist and program participants were Patricia Bell, Annette Rudd, Beverly Taylor, Jacqueline Hayward.

Also Carolyn Hansley and Jean Hall, Pastor, Rev J. C. Nelson gave remarks, commending both the committee, officers and program.

MT. PISGAH AME - JERSEY CITY

Usher-Usherette Boards held a successful Annual Banquet at church, Rev J. J. Jackson, pastor. Ushers and usherettes aiding in its success were L. L. Oliver, president, Dorothy Williams, Geo. Reeves, Elsie Burrell, Madeline Kelly, Grace Kelly, Daniel Thompson, Eloise Thompson, Agnes McCoy.

Another notable occasion will be the Woman's Day March 23rd, with Mrs J. J. Jackson, the pastor's wife, chairman. All are invited to attend.

In Memoriam

CLARA JACKSON ST. JOHN, Newark, after a long illness. Graduate of New Haven Normal School, and teacher in Camden, N. J. prior to coming to Newark, 48 years ago with her husband the late Hoseph Robert St. John. She later devoted her time to professional instructions in the piano. Members of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Order of St. Luke, The Tents, Caroline Johnson Club, Auxiliary Montclair Old Folks Home, of which she was member, all grieve at her passing. She leaves daughter Gladys E. Churchman, Executive director Friendly Neighborhood House, son Joseph R., Lansing Mich., grandson James E. Churchman, Jr., Newark mortician, one brother, and two great grand-children, also grieving at her demise.

SARAH RAY JOYNER, Bloomfield, consistently penning a column over the years for one of the weekly newspapers, in philosophy, poetry and coverage of church news, passed away at East Orange General Hospital. Her husband, daughter, son, sisters and brother along with grandchildren and the entire community mourn her passing. The David Woody (Eldridge C. Woody) Funeral Home efficiently performed the last rites of burial.

BEAUTY IS NOT GLAMOUR . . .

BARBARA ANNE DE LANEY

ED. NOTE: Miss DeLaney recently mentioned as a Club World contestant (Fall issue 1957), has recently received notice from Yeshiva University, New York, Commissioners on Admission of her acceptance as a fellow in the graduate school of education, where she will pursue her master's in preparation for teaching Spanish in higher schools of learning. At present she teaches third graders at the Monmouth Street School, Newark, N.J.

An authority on BEAUTY, she brings our readers

Welcome girls to the beauty clinic, it is an established fact every girl wants to be beautiful, so let's not prolong that want, let's be beautiful.

Beauty is its own excuse for being! Beauty leads to a good life. Life can be beautiful.

This column is taken from my book "Beauty Defined", for you to obtain a better insight as to what the term beauty really means. It is to clarify in clear simple English, various false concepts that beauty has rendered. The woman is considered the standard or norm of beauty and the discussions are centered mainly around her.

Many of us do not stop to realize the deeper significance of the term--beauty. How often it is attributed solely to the face, without regard for the other parts of the body. When it is said that woman is beautiful, what immediately flashes to the mind? Is it her grace, her charm, her carriage, her personality, her manners or is it just the physical perceptual features of her face, her hair-do, her lipstick, powder and rouge (with a few do-dads here and there that accentuate the positive)? You guessed it!!!! It is the face. It receives much more care and attention than does any other part of the body.

This concept is strictly physical in nature, lacking completely spiritual element. One would conclude that it takes a pretty face to make beautiful persons regardless of the character and morals that the person may possess (which is inevitably a poor philosophy of beauty). Here is where fallacy enters. and where you must STOP AND THINK.

Where is beauty?--It is skin deep or on the surface? That which gives a beautiful surface, has its roots within (the skin). These inward roots take on characteristics that are within. They are the basis of our attitudes and ideas, our manners and customs, our charm and grace, our carriage and personality that make us either liked or disliked by others.

When these attributes of a woman are wholesome and pure, carefully steered so as not to falsify (front) her being, it can be said that, that woman is TRULY BEAUTIFUL.

When these attributes of a woman are not positive, so as to make for a good life for herself and others, that woman is not beautiful. The true and real (genuine) woman lives and directs her every activity from the roots.

Beauty is its own excuse for being. Beauty is expressive.

See you next issue--but before I go, let me remind you that beauty does not come overnight--nor can it be bought in a store.

Sally's Chatterings

DEFINITELY THE SEASON OF ARRIVALS...as the Clifford Whites of Newark (he's Platons, Inc.. she talented Mary of B&P)...await Sir Stork's arrival... we certainly admired her pretty as a picture look in red lace at Ball of Roses...then there's Social Elites' Faye Sconier and hubby.. counting the days...also very pretty Virginia Jones (Q'ette) and hubby quite the happy ones over expected bundle of joy.....

O'COURSE YOU'LL HAVE COMPETITION (Glamour lassies)... when beauteous MARGUERITE BELAFONTE comes to Newark (her first North Jersey appearance).. to commentate Epsilon Chapter, LKM Sorority Soiree Du Couturieres... at Masonice Temple... March 23... 5 to 10 P. M.

BUT WHAT'S A LITTLE COMPETITION 'tween lassies... particularly... when you'll get opportunity to see Epsilon's selection of the two best dressed males for 1957-58... (junior and a senior)... as well as get a look-see at scintillating cocktail and afternoon wear (the only types to be shown that afternoon)... created by North Jersey top-flight couturieres...

Among the stylists and milliners.... Lille LaMele... Janet Beadle.... Zelda Terrell... Ethyle Brown.... Dorothy Edwards.... Barbara Marshall (the newest comer into North Jersey area)... Kathryn Bethea... and certainly Pearl Overby.... Alma Hogan... Amaza Bennett... Josephine Holmes....

You'll have opportunity to hear Epsilon's star of stars... Lucretia Atwater (Newark school marm.... and artist par excellent)... Also you will hear one of Gotham's topflight nite club chanteurs... along with the Horace Simms aggregation.... and finally after the sparkling show.... sip delectable refreshment... and chat with your many friends.... O yes..... Emily Miles... Mary Anderson... Willa Rawlins... Eula Grobes... will feature... creations of millinery and frocks....

CALL IT LUCK O'THE IRISH (or what you will)... your gal Sally calls it... "Faithful service reward"... when we learned Mrs BESSIE ROBERTS of Beverly, N. J. (Union, N. J. Jean Dixon's charm mom)... came into a windfall of an inheritance ($20, 000)... from her late employers the Ford sisters.... (cousins of multi-millionaire Henry Ford)... whom she had served diligently some 34 years....

CERTAINLY A SOCIAL ECLAT SEASON.... The Emily Miles "Above All The Right Hat"... with theme "Designing Woman"... designers literally romping away with show.. however not quite overshadowing the scintillating millinery pieces... Everybody.. but everybody present.. Managed to say hello to one of our favorite friends.. Ann Garry Foster (and extend sympathy at loss of her mom)... waved cheery greeting to Maxine Cooper (Dr C. T. Hill of Rahway.. pretty wife)... waved to Emma Carter (same town) Chatte d with friend Billy Dasher.. Lucille H. Bolton(advising her beauteous daughter weds soon)... stopped off to chat with Mary Burch and co-partner in The Leaguers (gracious Mrs Hutchinson)... reminding us Leaguers Cotillion is June 13th....

OFF AND RUNNING TO ELEGANT... Potentate's Ball(Golconda #24)... this year downtown at Continental... we fortunate in having two hosts... affable Major Taylor... and our kinfolk Alfonso (Tony) Folsom... o'course his table.. one great big happy family group... with our luminous eyed.... and beautiful friend Nellie Wahlstrom Flemming and hubby Rhodell... her sister Ellen and George... Charlie Brown & Barbara Ann... Lewis & Bernice Moseley... Hugo Wahlstrom and lovely wife "Teddie"... Ollie and Zee Johnson... and more....

Sally's Chatterings

Sitting one out with the Wilcox Brandons and he reminded us of Kapp a Spring Formal... while Olive Mason played perfect hostess for hubby Chas.

THAT IMPRESSIVE GARMENT (The chemise) made its appearance in full array at Q'ettes Annual card party.. such glamour lassies daring to don the much controversial garb... as Q'ettes prexy Norma McCain (in an elegant beige number).. Marie Whigham (who sets the fashion pace) in check of black and white... fashionable Emily Miles (dares anything at least once) in beige with deep cowl back neckline....

Lovely Vera Mann chose to be less noticeable.. sticking to latest coat fashion... pale beige drape number... dashing Fannie Williams, Vaux Hall (not a chemise.. but equally elegant in red) with wispy ostrich feathers in chapeau of white... Speaking of hats we liked the kelly green profile affair worn by vivacious Corinna Kay.. the white satins by Ruth Hazelwood... and Evelyn Inge (Q'ette)....

Beauteous Dorothy Wilson (Q'ette) did a Jayne Mansfield.. all covered up.. and looking most sophisticated in black with tiny pale pink beige hat... Marie Goode (Q'ette) selected royal blue gown and matching chapeau....

Alma Hogan (NAFAD past prexy) black woolen chemise and chapeau of her own creation... Demure Edna Starks of Union in wide chapeau.... and matching frock of beige... Glamorous Mary Williams (E. O.) a breath of Spring in colorful print.. bouffant tunic overskirt and large picture hat....

O'COURSE YOU WAIT BREATHLESSLY.. to hear of Phi Delta Kappa annual Valentine Supper Dance.. suffice it to say... 900 "cream of the crop" socialites proved.. public in nowise satiated with this elegant affair.. Auld line citizens as Mae Mulford.. Laura Green.. Florence Brown.. the Bill Ashbys... together having gay ole time...

INTERESTING FOLK... as Charles Davis (US Foreign Diplomatic Service... just returned from Rome) escorting career lass Ruby Rodgers.. the charming Lou Hilton and affable postal employee hubby Jerry (Mtclar) with real estate magnate Alvis Thompson and his gracious wife.. The Al Fosters of Mtclr... tall.. stately Lucretia Atwater (formerly of Boston.. now Newark schoolmarm)... handsome Major Geo. Warren proudly escorting wife Rowena (Club World Cover Girl).....

AMONG YOUNGER SET... Hilton Davis and wife (Linden) and their interesting Panama guest.. Mr Bernsee (intrigued by American customs)... your gal Sally equally intrigued as he sipped lush "grasshoppers"(cocktails o'course)... what did you think?... Glad to see lovely Marjorie Brooks of Internal Revenue.. pretty as a picture....

BY WAY YOU KNEW O'COURSE... Janet Beadle (couturiere par excell) made 3 of the beautiful dresses worn by Sequins at recent Club dance.. get the Sequin club lassie to tell.. how she lost her Beadle creation in a taxi... retrieving it just before the dance... Quite a story!!!

SPEAKING OF STORIES... ask one of town's most glamorous and popular cafe socialites.. to tell when hubby was snowbound nite of fabulous B&P Formal Ball of Roses.. and unable to return to city.. she pressed into escort service... a handsome male friend.. fitting him out in hubby's eve attire.. shirt.. tie.. suit.. even shoes.. Hooray for her!.... 't would certainly been a shame if she'd missed it.. since she was definitely "Belle Of the Ball".. in slim fitted full length blush rose satin gown.. Again we were Fortune's favorite.. being guests of two charming B&P's(Magnolia Campbell and the "Queen" of the Ball no-less.. Mary Pitts Jones)....

REGRETTABLE THE BLIZZARD.. kept so many from Top affair of the season (B&P Rose Ball).. for no other reason than at least to view catered service by Cleo Johnson.. for natl prexy Marie Harrison and guests.. Numerous huge containers.. brimful luscious lobster tails.. jumbo shrimps... huge hollowed out watermelon.. brimful of snowball size watermelon balls... honeydew.. cantaloupe.. guavas.. orange and grapefruit chunks.. Huge broiliers containing steaming chicken livers.. swedish meat balls... Quite a "Mike Todd" party (sans the stampede o'course)

SALUTE TO

JOHN COSTLEY, JR., of East Orange, three terms president of the East Orange National Alliance Postal Employees, will be missed by the fellows as he goes into his new field with the New Jersey State Probation department. The boys will always revere John for having been one with them in the "greatest show on earth".

Mr & Mrs Henry B. Duncan (he's Monrovia, Liberia) and she the former Louise Collier of Plainfield, N. J., are welcomed to Newark. Both performed excellently as speakers at recent Founder's Day celebration by the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority at Newark downtown YM-YWCA. (CONT'D -37)

Youth Swings Out The Leaguers, Inc.

Enthusiasm runs high among the Leaguers these days over the stupendous program being undertaken, with Mary E. Burch, advisor and founder at the helm, steering it to successful accomplishment.

Among the many features is the WORKSHOP March 24th at Leaguer's headquarters, 444 Clinton Avenue, Newark, embracing Education, Nursing, Engineering, Medicine, Teaching, and other careers in which they are interested. Among speakers of authority will be Dr John Alexander of Orange, Bennett Herman, and Dr. Gertrude Forrester.

Due to the success of the December card party last year, plans have been completed for a repeat performance the second Saturday in November of this year. The Annual Débutantes Cotillion on June 13th at the Terrace will find approximately 15 to 20 debs making their bow to society.

The biggest program ever to be tackled by a youth group in this area is the Leaguer's building plans, Mr Hubert Crawford, of Newark, chairman of the building committee, with E. T. Bowser, architect having already submitted the blueprints.

BIG TIME

SAM COOKE

His meteoric rise to stardom in the last year was climaxed with his appearance on Steve Allen recent TV program. The phenomenal sales of 1,200,000 records, of which "You Send Me" is a highlight, attest to his wide spread popularity.

BOBBIE SHORT

Rapidly rising to the top is Bobbie Short, versatile pianist and vocalist, whose vibrant style, clean-cut, and boyish good looks have won him lavish praise from night club and from TV audiences. Short's subdued artistry at the keys (he doesn't blast, nor improvise a great deal), stamps him as a future "great".

Pioneers

Helping to introduce the new media of religious recordings are the PIONEERS, whose rendition of church songs are singularly effective. Their latest recordings (Bibletone records) "Calm The Ocean", "Don't Forget to Pray", "Peace in the Valley", "Jesus, Jesus", "Satan Loose The Man" and "Time Is Drawing Nigh", are rendered in proper spiritual reverence without reaching unnecessary emotional crescendo.

OLLIE MATSON

WILT CHAMBERLAIN

Phenomenal star of the University of Kansas. His early season's torrid pace and scoring and snaring rebounds stamps him as perhaps the greatest collegiate basketball player on the courts today.

ELGIN BAYLOR

GUY RODGERS

Brilliant play maker of Temple University, excels both on offense and defense. Combined speed and finesse with devastating effect.

MAURICE STOKES

Tabbed the "Magnificent" and truly so. Versatile and durable center of the Cincinnati Royals. A player's player. Poised, dependable, one of the greats of pro-basketball.
